Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Excelsior Trousers Cutter With a Treatise on Defects and Remedies in Trousers: Fully Illustrated With Nineteen Diagrams In presenting this work to the trade we realize that our efforts in this direction will be criticized by some, endorsed by others, and used by those who are in the line of progress. It is an easy matter for an intelligent, or even an illiterate, man to condemn a work of this nature, but it is another and entirely different thing to disprove the principles embodied in the system set forth. It is not the interest of the authors of this volume to condemn other works on trousers cutting that have been published, but we do affirm that no work ever published in America covers the ground so thoroughly and arrives at correct conclusions in an easier, more scientific and practical way than the present volume. The reason for this is the fact that the authors are men of long experience in the trade as practical tailors and cutters and have reduced their actual experience at the cutting board to a system we claim not excelled, if equaled, by any other author. This may seem boasting to some, but to satisfy yourselves of our claim it will be expedient to thoroughly examine our work and test it by actual experience, and we believe the present work will be endorsed by the trade as a rade mecum in their work. We do not insist that you should utilize every opinion or illustration it contains, if they are not in harmony with your views, but they may lead you into new and unexplored fields, so that your actual...
