Excerpt: . . . 11 Senator DeMint, it is a pleasure today to address you, and the Senate Subcommittee on the preparedness issues facing Beaufort County. As the Director of Emergency Management for Beaufort County, I have had the experience of evacuating this county on five different occasions. As the only county in South Carolina that requires an entire evacuation to include all levels of government, we face a substantial challenge to develop and maintain the level of readiness necessary to accomplish that mission. Beaufort County and the State of South Carolina, in its commitment to residents and visitors have developed an in-depth evacuation plan. In cooperating with our state partners, we believe that we have the ability to fully implement that plan, and successfully evacuate those residents who want to leave. Much of our ability to successfully evacuate depends upon accurate and timely weather information that is presented to us in a format that is convincing to the...
