What are these works of darkness of which St. Paul speaks? By the word darkness, the Sacred Scriptures designate whatever is opposed to God and his holy law. God is light, the opposite of God is darkness; hence, Satan is called in Holy Writ the prince of darkness, as the adversary of God, and in order to distinguish him from the Angels of light, whose everlasting society he wilfully forfeited. He who remains faithful to God, walks in the light; he who deserts God and transgresses his holy commandments, walks in darkness, is the follower of Satan, the prince of darkness, and a citizen of that kingdom which is justly called the kingdom of darkness. The Son of God plainly tells us this: I am the light of the world; he that followeth me, walketh not in darkness, but shall have the light of life. (John...
