The Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical Society Founded at New York City in 1875 by H. P. Blavatsky, William Q. Judge and others Reorganized in 1898 by Katherine Tingley Central Office, Point Loma, California The Headquarters of the Society at Point Loma with the buildings and grounds, are no Community Settlement or Colony, but are the Central Executive Office of an International organization where the business of the same is carried on, and where the teachings of Theosophy are being demonstrated. Midway twixt East and West, where the rising Sun of Progress and Enlightenment shall one day stand at full meridian, the Headquarters of the Society unite the philosophic Orient with the practical West. MEMBERSHIP In the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical Society may be either at large or in a local Branch. Adhesion to the principle of Universal Brotherhood is the only pre-requisite to membership. The Organization represents no particular creed; it la entirely unsectarian. and includes professors of all faiths, only exacting from each member that large toleration of the beliefs of others which he desires them to exhibit towards bis own. Applications for membership in a Branch should be addressed to the local Director; for membership at large to the...
