Crossway Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Be Still, My Soul: Embracing God's Purpose and Provision in Suffering, Nancy Guthrie, Joni Eareckson Tada, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Corrie Ten Boom, John Calvin, This exceptional collection of twenty-five short readings drawn from the writings or sermons of classic and contemporary theologians and Bible teachers will encourage anyone seeking to make sense of suffering. All of us know what it is to suffer, from the loss of a job, the end of a marriage, a chronic disease, or the death of a loved one. We wonder what God could be doing or if he is involved in it at all. We wonder how anything good can come out of it and how to find God in the midst of it. Nancy Guthrie, who has sought to make sense of the suffering she has experienced in the loss of two of her children, has put together this helpful collection of short readings that help to re-shape our perspective about suffering, renew our confidence that God has a good purpose in our suffering, and remind us of God's presence with us in our suffering. This anthology includes chapters by classic and contemporary theologians and Bible teachers ranging from John Calvin, Charles Spurgeon, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and Jonathan Edwards to John Piper, Tim Keller, D. A. Carson, and Joni Eareckson Tada. This collection helps us to leave behind a sentimental or stoic approach to suffering, and embrace solidly scriptural answers to our questions about suffering.
