Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 94 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. A revolution in the success rate of technical analysis. Here is the book you always dreamed about. It explains a new method of technical analysis developed by the authors on the basis of their own experiences. It is a method that is easy to understand and simple to use. Anyone can use it for trading. The method is useful for a novice trader and for the professional intraday traders as well. The method is useful in different types of markets. It can be used for the analysis of a stock, an index, a commodity or a currency. A reader can master the art of using this method only by training his eyes properly. He has to understand how to spot the buying and selling opportunities in a chart. The method should not be automated as it is based upon the observation of charts by the bare eyes only. This method generates a limited number of signals. However, the quality of such signals is very high. In other words, you have a great opportunity to make handsome profits by mastering this method. As mentioned earlier, you should not try to increase the number of signals by making changes in the method. Rather you should try to find the appropriate stock, index, commodity or currency charts showing HKF signals. Moreover, you can use the tick data, 5 minute data, 15 minute data, 60 minute data, daily data, weekly data or even monthly data for the purpose of analysis. The aspects of stop loss and target are not discussed in this book. They will be discussed in my next book titled The Use Of Hemant Kanade Factor In Technical Analysis Part Two. My previous...
