Excerpt: .In each sentence more than one assertion is made about the subject. The robin collects mud and lines her nest with it. She la ys her eggs and UIEDIIBIIL The Eggs are kept waY1 and are protected by the mother bird. W W What two assertions are made about each subject? Make three assertions about the robin. Sometimes the same sentence may have a compound subject and a compound predicate. Robins, song-sparrows, and bluebirds build their nests, lay their eggs, and raise their children af3b--out the same Ere. In this sentence the subject substantive has been underlined once and the predicate verb twice. There is a compound subject composed of three parts and also a compound predicate composed of three parts. These are, however, considered as one subject and one predicate. Problems In the following sentences, which have compound predicates and which have simple...
