Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Foreign Language School Question: An Address to the Honolulu Social Science Association; November 8, 1920 For the past two years or so there has been discussion in Hawaii of the abolition or regulation of language schools. meaning those conducted in languages other than English. An attempt to regulate them failed at the last legislative session. The subject has now come to a renewed focus through the publication of a bill drafted by the Attorney General, to be submitted to the Legislature for enactment, which, in effect, abolishes all language schools. Reasons for Protest Against Suppressing Schools I approve of the proposition to regulate these schools; but as an American citizen, from an American standpoint, I protest against the enactment of this, or any other bill which directly or indirectly suppresses them. The following are the reasons for this protest: The avowed object of the Attorney General s bill is to crush the schools now being taught in the Japanese language. The object is not stated directly in the bill. It is accomplished by indirect means; but the Japanese arc singled out to be discriminated against, as effectively as though named. The Japanese did not come here of their own accord. We not only invited them to come, but actually recruited them, as agricultural laborers, paying the passages of thousands of them. We made no stipulation that they should return home at the end of their term of service. On the contrary, we held out inducements to them to stay, and were glad when they did so. Reasons for Increase of Children Their children have increased beyond expectation. It is not their fault that this...
