Everyone has a different story to live, even when they walk under the same wet sky every day of their lives. Even when the same wickedness approaches them in the same dark mask, no two stories are ever the same. Everyone makes her story her own. Everyone interprets the plot in her own style, and decides whether to give the antagonist her heart or her fist, her peace or her fury. And how she interprets the story has everything to do with how her story will end. from the prologue This is the way it was for Cassandra Dee Orgeron and Helen Boudreaux in the deep south of Louisiana in the early 1970s.
