Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Memoir of Major Samuel Ringgold, United States Army Mr. President and Gentlemen: It becomes my melancholy, yet pleasing duty, this evening, to revive in your recollection a few of the striking characteristics and generous actions of one who, during life, devoted himself to the service of his country, and finally yielded up that life as a votive offering at her shrine. In the performance of this duty, I am not actuated by an exalted opinion of military glory or renown; nor by a desire either to flatter or speak condolence to surviving relatives; these are worthy and creditable motives; but mine, on the present occasion, is a still higher one, and aims, by portraying a life full of usefulness and national devotion, so far as my feeble powers will permit, to inculcate the positive necessity for self sacrifice, when the government under which we live requires so much at the hands of either of its citizens. In the examination of history we too frequently overlook the component parts of a nation. We behold it in its...
