

Heinous, Atrocious Cruel

By Terence M. Lenamon

Telemachus Press, LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 184 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. Heinous, atrocious and cruel - these words describe the crimes that Terence (Terry) Lenamon defends on a daily basis as one of Florida's select group of death-qualified attorneys. Terry achieved national recognition as a death-qualified defense trial lawyer with his representation of some of Florida's most well-known and most reviled defendants. His cases have aired on the First 48, Caso Cerrado, Issues with Jane Velasquez Mitchell, and Nancy Grace. His clients have included Casey Anthony, Yvette Yallico, Cesar Mena, and Harrell Brady, the infamous Miami Strangler. In this book, he has chronicled some of his most challenging cases. These cases offer a fascinating insiders look at the workings of a death penalty prosecution. This is a world that most people never get to see, and a world that most people would like to pretend does not exist. Terry and his team take the reader on journeys to discover how their clients ended up facing death row. These cases explore the much deeper issues of compassion, forgiveness, retribution, and revenge. The defense of people accused of horrific crimes often requires a deeply critical look at how...
