A constitution based upon that of the Massachusetts State Society was adopted, and the following officers chosen: Peter Cushman Jones, president; Albert Francis Judd, vice-president; John Effinger, secretary; William DeWitt Alexander, registrar; William Joseph Forbes, treasurer; board of managers, Rev. Douglas Putnam Birnie, John Walter Jones and Henry Weld Severance. The annual business meetings of the Society have ever since been held on the 17th of June. Since the organization of the Hawaiian Society there have been many celebrations of anniversaries of Revolutionary historical events. Some of the accounts of these celebrations have been taken from the minutes of the Society and others gathered from the files of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, which, together with other...
