Stentor, Vol. 2: July, 1888 In the light of these principles let us glance at the ethics of this new form of materialism. It claims to be an integral part of the Evolution Hypothesis. All its supporters are evolutionists, but thankful we are that all evolutionists are not its supporters. Take away all the spirituality, all the recognition of an intelligent and personal first cause, all else but matter and force from the evolution theory and you have the philosophic basis of this new ethics. It is evolution with a vengeance. Some of its advocates would deny this. Theoretically some of them admit an unknown and unknowable first cause. Some of them shrink, when put to the test, from blank materialism. What we charge upon them is, they make no practical use of these concessions. They make them and then relegate them to oblivion. Its principles are these: The end of life is happiness, the pleasurable is the right, - the painful is the wrong. Utility is the standard of right...
