Excerpt: . . . 21 use for operations, including survey activities. Typically, tables within the conference report identify amounts for survey and other activities funded through the Program Management Account. According to a CMS official, the agency generally allocates the amounts specified in the conference 22 report tables to the relevant activities. Funding for survey activities covers (1) state survey operations; (2) direct federal surveys, such as community mental health centers; and (3) support contracts, such as for training surveyors, developing a new nursing home survey methodology, 23 and surveying psychiatric hospitals. The costs of managing survey activities, such as salaries for staff of CMSs Survey and Certification Group and federal surveyors in each of CMSs 10 regional offices, are also funded through CMSs Program Management Account, but not as part of the funds designated in the conference report for survey activities. Each August, CMS notifies states of their projected Medicare budget allocations for the federal fiscal year starting October 1, based on the Presidents proposed budget. After...
