Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Training for Store Service: The Vocational Experiences and Training of Juvenile Employees of Retail Department, Dry Goods and Clothing Stores in Boston, Report of Investigations Made in the Research Department of the Women s Educational and Industrial Union. Many persons have co-operated in supplying the data embodied in this report. The investigators of the Research Department of the Women s Educational and Industrial Union have been in close touch with the work of the pioneer school for the training of store employees which was founded in 1905 and maintained as a part of the activities of the Union until September, 1918. We are indebted to Mrs. Lucinda W. Prince, the Director, and Miss Helen Rich Norton, formerly Associate Director, for opportunities to observe the activities of the school. We have profited, also, by the assistance of experienced and gifted directors of the education departments of Boston stores; special mention should be made of our obligations to Miss Bernice M. Cannon, of William Filene s Sons Company, Miss Mary Hopkins of the Jordan Marsh Company and Miss Helen R. Norton of the R. H. White Company, each of whom has given generously of her time for the discussion of aspects of our report or the reading of the manuscript. Employment managers and other store officials have been patient and kindly in assisting our investigators to locate the information buried in their files. Miss Susan J. Ginn, Director of the Vocational Guidance Bureau of the Boston Public Schools, and the members of her staff, have placed their excellent employment records at our disposal and assisted in their interpretation. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of...
